

Christopher R. Brigham, MD is a thought leader on human potential and dis/ability whose goal is to have all of us, including those who are injured and ill, experience joyful and productive lives. He is the author of Living Able and Healthy: Your Guide to Injury and Illness Recovery, Editor of the AMA Guides Newsletter and Casebook, and Senior Contributing Editor for the AMA Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment, Sixth Edition. Chris has written over 280 peer-reviewed articles, a professional speaker who has spoken at over 350 events, consulted extensively in the United States and internationally, and skilled in the use of web-based technologies. He is a Stephen Minister and a founder of the Faith Based Claims Association, an ecumenical organization where faith and profession intersect.

Chris received his Medical Degree from the Washington University School of Medicine – St. Louis, Master of Medical Science from Rutgers Medical School, and Certificate in Human Resources Management from the University of Southern Maine. He is Board-Certified in Occupational Medicine (ABPM), a Founding Director of the American Board of Independent Medical Examiners, a Fellow of the American College of Occupational Environmental Medicine and a Fellow of the International Academy of Independent Medical Evaluators. Chris loves to sail, kayak, road cycle, travel and most of all be with his family, he is married, has 3 daughters and 4 grandchildren. He resides in Hilton Head Island, South Carolina and Falmouth, Maine.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/chrisbrigham>

<https://twitter.com/crbrigham>
<https://twitter.com/livingabled>